

Action Item from Board Members from July Board Meeting

Action Item Follow-Up from July Board Meeting

- Member Bhatia requested information about whether Atlas Iron and Metal will be liable for biomonitoring and/or compensation for the community.
- DTSC's Director's Office responded with information about the plea agreement with Atlas.
 - This item is Complete.

Action Item Follow-Up from July Board Meeting

- Member Gomez requested further information about the $70 million being allocated to the Exide cleanup.
- Director Butler's response indicated that this would be a more productive conversation closer to the end of the year.
 - This item is In Progress

Action Item Follow-Up from July Board Meeting

- Member Brostrom requested information about DTSC's biomonitoring program and what criteria DTSC uses for biomonitoring.
- The Director's Office responded with information about DTSC's partnership with other state agencies in the Biomonitoring California project.
 - This item is Complete

Action Item Follow-Up from July Board Meeting

- Chair Rakestraw asked if DTSC will need additional resources to address the Director's priorities.
- The Director's Office responded that no additional resources are needed at this time.
 - This item is Complete

Action Item Follow-Up from July Board Meeting

- Member Gomez asked for the information that DTSC utilizes to define “sensitive receptors”.
- Per the Director’s Office, DTSC currently utilizes the language from HSC 25200.21 (c) to define “sensitive receptors”.
 - This item is Complete

Action Item Follow-Up from July Board Meeting

- Members Brostrom and Gomez requested training for EJAC members to familiarize them with DTSC's organization and its role with the facilities it oversees.
- DTSC has had briefings about the inner workings of DTSC with most of the EJAC members.
 - This item is Complete

Action Item Follow-Up from July Board Meeting

- Phillip Chandler sent an email asking whether a USGS lead evaluation report or protocols were available at the time of DTSC's court case over off-site cleanup of lead from Exide.
- Per the Director's Office, USGS is still in process of developing the lead attribution methodology.
 - This item is Complete

Public Inquiry Follow-Up from July Board Meeting

Public Inquiry Follow-Up from July Board Meeting

- Angela Johnson Meszaros from Earthjustice requested a copy of the environmental justice training module currently being utilized by DTSC.
- Per the Director's Office, DTSC will be rolling out trainings on public participation and environmental justice, with the first module expected in September 2025.
 - This item is Complete.

Public Inquiry Follow-Up from July Board Meeting

- Miguel Alatorre from Unidos Network asked about DTSC's public participation training.
- Per the Director's Office, the public participation training that was referenced is not currently available to the public.
 - This item is Complete.

Public Inquiry Follow-Up from July Board Meeting

- Dawn Koepke from CCEEB asked whether the public would have an opportunity to better understand DTSC's public participation training
- Information from the Director's Office about the public participation and environmental justice training, which are currently unavailable to the public.
 - This item is Complete

Public Inquiry Follow-Up from July Board Meeting

- Dawn Koepke from CCEEB requested information about how the ECL is currently funded, and whether there is any interest in expanding it or looking at new funding structures.
- The Director's Office responded with information about current funding sources for ECL and the various programs supported by those funds.
 - 5: This item is Complete

Public Inquiry Follow-Up from July Board Meeting

- Dawn Koepke from CCEEB asked if DTSC is collaborating with other Boards or departments within CalEPA on PFAs investigations.
- Per the Director's Office, DTSC is currently developing a PFAs Action Plan that is consistent with Director's Priority 4.
 - 5: This item is Complete

Public Inquiry Follow-Up from July Board Meeting

- Brian Cadena from Unidos Network requested information about which facilities under DTSC's jurisdiction contain or process PFAs.
- Per the Director's Office, PFAs are not currently classified hazardous waste.
 - This item is Complete

Public Inquiry Follow-Up from July Board Meeting

- A member of the public requested information about any hazardous waste management training available to the public.
- Per the Director's Office, DTSC does not offer specific training for the public.
 - This item is Complete

Public Inquiry Follow-Up from July Board Meeting

- Angela Johnson Meszaros from Earthjustice requested the scope of work from the EJAC consultant contract.
- A copy of the scope of work was sent on July 25th.
 - This item is Complete